“The pipeline is encouraging, with a number of recent announcements indicating that we are in for an active Q4. While the full impact from the UK’s vote to leave the EU is still to be realised, the initial reaction is that it has not been as bad as had been feared.

Although we are cautious as to whether 2016 manages to raise half of the €57bn raised in 2015, we do expect proceeds to reach the €25bn mark.”

Mark Hughes

Partner, UK Capital Markets leader at PwC

European IPO trends

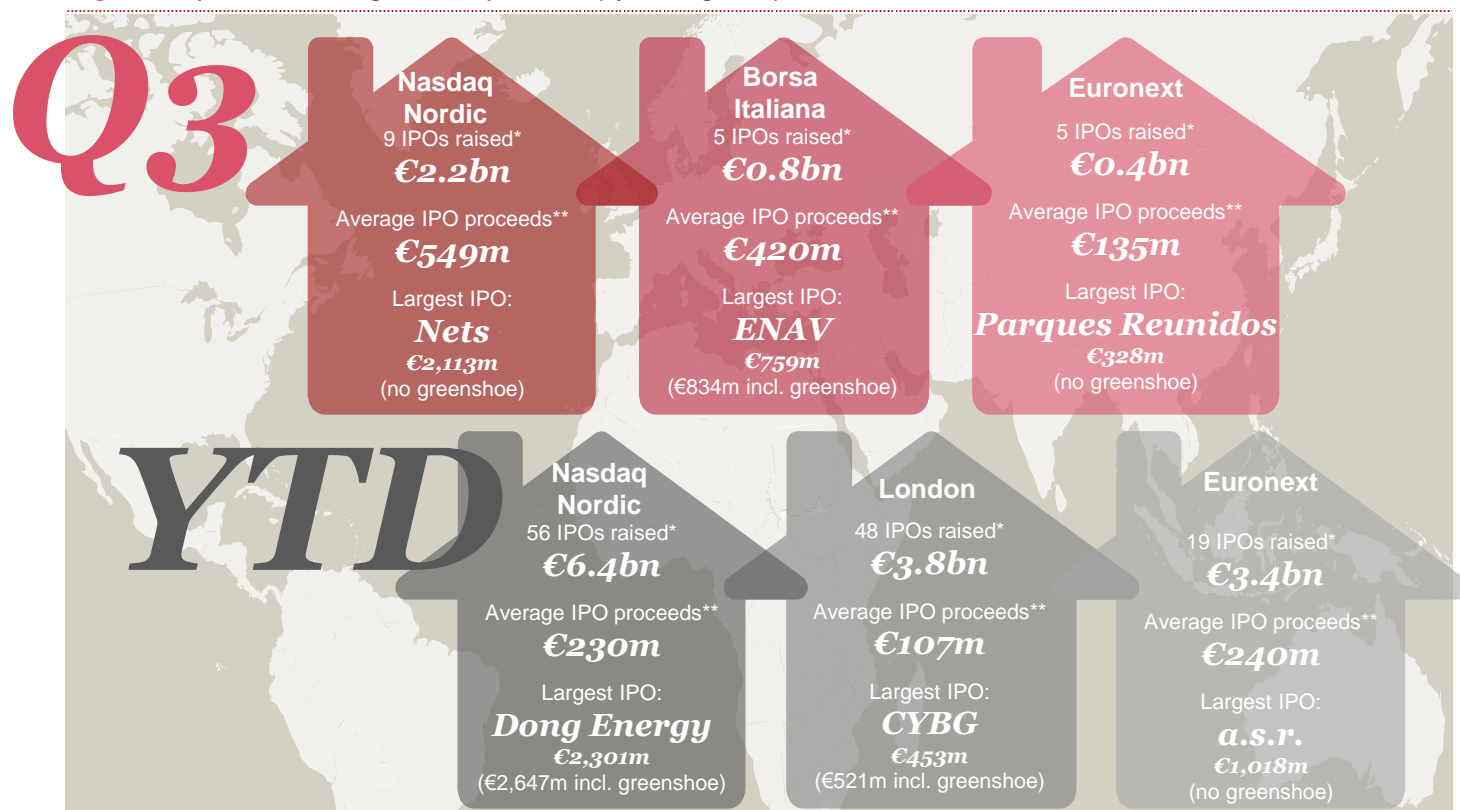

Nasdaq Nordic continued to be the most active European exchange in terms of both activity and proceeds raised

European IPO trends

Subdued activity, as 52 IPOs raised €3.8bn, a decrease in proceeds of 17% compared to Q3 2015 and a 65% decrease compared to Q2 2016

“Although Q3 is traditionally the quietest quarter for IPOs, this year was particularly slow. Q3 saw a number of planned transactions being delayed or cancelled allowing time to assess the impact on the market from the UK’s vote to leave the EU. As we enter the final quarter, the clouds appear to be clearing as IPO candidates seek to take advantage of the current market conditions, prior to any volatility which may result from the US presidential election.”

“The DONG Energy A/S and Nets A/S IPOs in Q2 and Q3 are the largest in Europe so far this year. These combined with the 54 other IPOs on Nasdaq Nordic mean that the Nasdaq Nordic is the most active European exchange for the year to date in terms of number of IPOs and the largest in terms of proceeds. The pipeline also looks strong, with a number of opportunities lining up for IPO, however, whether these will happen in Q4 or 2017, is hard to say.”

About IPO Watch Europe

IPO Watch Europe surveys all new primary market equity IPOs on Europe's principal stock markets and market segments (including exchanges in the EU, Iceland, Norway, Turkey and Switzerland) on a quarterly basis. Movements between markets on the same exchange are excluded.

This survey was conducted between 1 July and 30 September 2016 and captures IPOs based on their first trading date. All market data is sourced from the stock markets themselves and has not been independently verified by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.
